MARAVICH ASSEMBLY CENTER • MAY 30 • 9:30 A.M.
ROBERT B. BARNETT,

ROBERT B. BARNETT, a partner of the prestigious Washington, D.C., law firm of Williams & Connolly LLP, has represented Presidents Barack Obama, Bill Clinton, and George W. Bush, along with a host of other government officials and media and television celebrities.

Considered by many as "the attorney to the nation's most influential people," Barnett has a diverse practice, representing individuals and national and international corporations on issues ranging from publishing and media relations to litigation, contracts and crisis management. In addition, Barnett has worked to prepare presidential and vice presidential candidates for televised debates in eight national presidential campaigns.

Barnett is one of the world's premier representatives of authors and their written and published works. His clients also include Hillary Rodham Clinton, former Prime Minister Tony Blair, the Prince of Wales, and many others, including journalists, novelists, business leaders, sports stars, and politicians. He is also one of the leading representatives of television news correspondents and producers, anchors in many major television markets, and producers of virtually every major broadcast on network and cable television. Barnett is also known for his work with former government officials as they transition to the private sector.

Among the corporations that Barnett represents are McDonald's, General Electric, Comcast, Newsweek/Daily Beast, JM Family Enterprises, and Sunbeam. During this thirty years of practice, Barnett has represented clients before almost every executive department and administrative agency in Washington, D.C. Barnett also specializes in negotiating executive compensation agreements for senior officers at such companies as AT&T, Fannie Mae, the Recording Industry Association of America, the Motion Picture Association of America, and Deutsche Bank. He also represents several university presidents, deans, and professors.

Barnett joined Williams & Connolly LLP in 1975 and has been a partner since 1978. He is a member of the firm's Executive Committee. He was a presidentially appointed member of the Board of Trustees of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts from 1994 to 2004 and currently serves as Senior Counsel. Mr. Barnett served as a Law Clerk to Judge John Minor Wisdom of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit from 1971 to 1972. He was a United States Supreme Court Clerk to Justice Byron R. White from 1972 to 1973 and was a Legislative Assistant to United States Senator Walter F. Mondale from 1973 to 1975.

In 1971, Mr. Barnett received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Chicago Law School. He graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin in 1968. He is married to Rita Braver, the longtime correspondent with CBS News.

HONOR GRADUATES

DEGREES WITH HONORS

Juris Doctor and Diploma in Comparative Law candidates may receive their degrees summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude. Degrees are awarded summa cum laude to students who rank in the top two percent of the graduating class; magna cum laude, to the next ten percent of the graduating class; and cum laude, to students in the next thirteen percent of the graduating class or the top twenty-five percent of the class. The determination for these designations is also based on class rank.

Students graduating with these honors are recognized at Commencement by wearing honor cords. Students graduating summa cum laude wear two gold and two purple cords. Those graduating magna cum laude graduates wear two gold cords. The preliminary list of students graduating with honors is included below.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is a national honorary law fraternity. The Louisiana chapter was established in 1942, and its purpose is to stimulate scholarly work of the highest order and to foster and promote a high standard of professional conduct. Each year, the local chapter elects to membership from the highest ten percent of the 3L class, those students who are deemed qualified.

Prior to that, Mr. Dixon was the section chief in juvenile court for the Office of Public Defender in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. In that capacity, he represented hundreds of youth in both child welfare and delinquency proceedings. For his work in juvenile court, he was the recipient of the Louisiana State Bar Association's Career Public Interest Award. Mr. Dixon was a co-founder of the Juvenile Law Center at the LSU Law Center where he was also an adjunct professor of law. He was lead counsel in In Re C.B., a landmark Louisiana Supreme Court case on the right to treatment for youth in custody and the right to trial by jury for youth at risk of being placed at hard labor. As a member of the Louisiana Law Institute’s Children’s Code Committee, Mr. Dixon contributed to legislative reform both within the child welfare and juvenile justice systems. He chaired the Committee’s sub-committee on juvenile confessions. Mr. Dixon is the author of "The Worst of Both Worlds: Punishments and Procedures for Children in Louisiana," 30 Southern Law Review 329 (2003).

He earned his B.S. from Louisiana State University, and received his law degree from the LSU Law Center.
