2006 COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

TOM C. GALLIGAN, JR.
Dean and Professor of Law, University of Tennessee School of Law

Tom Galligan is president-elect of Colby-Sawyer College where he will begin work in August 2006. Currently, he is Dean and Professor of Law at the University of Tennessee College of Law in Knoxville, Tennessee. He teaches torts, admiralty, and remedies. From 1986 until May, 1998, Galligan taught at the LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center. At LSU, Galligan was named the Dr. Dale E. Bennett Professor of Law and was honored by the students as the Outstanding LSU Professor six times. Galligan has published numerous articles in various journals, including the Louisiana Law Review, the Tulane Law Review, and the University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform. With Professor Frank L. Maraist, Galligan is the author of the treatise Louisiana Tort Law. Maraist and Galligan's co-authored scholarship has been honored by the Louisiana Bar Journal and the Tulane Law Review. Galligan now lives in Knoxville with his wife Susan and four children, Patrick, Sarah, Aisling, and Jennifer.

HONORARY MEMBER OF THE ORDER OF THE COIF
JUDGE DOUG MOREAU

Judge Doug Moreau currently serves as District Attorney for the 19th Judicial District - and has served in that role since January 1991. Prior to becoming District Attorney, he served briefly on the City Court of Baton Rouge and then served for over a decade as a judge of the 19th Judicial District Court. He has been active in law reform endeavors, serving as a member of the Law Institute's Committee for Revision of the Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure and Criminal Code as well as member of numerous other task forces on law reform. He has been active in judicial education in presenting various lectures and programs for the Louisiana Judicial College. He has also been actively involved in legal education, serving for many years as an adjunct professor of law at his alma mater, the LSU Law Center.

Judge Moreau earned his undergraduate degree at LSU, where in addition to being an outstanding student, he earned numerous records as an outstanding athlete. He was named to the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame, the LSU Chapter of ODK, and the LSU Alumni Hall of Distinction. Following his college football career, he played for the Miami Dolphins professional football team until he decided to return to LSU to pursue his law degree.

He has been the recipient of numerous other awards and recognition for his service to his profession, his University, and his community.
