Translation Projects: A Team of Francophone Jurilinguists at Work

As in 2011, the CCLS is hosting a team of scholars from the Université de Nantes (France) from April – June. Anne Perocheau and Anne-Sophie Roinsard are students in the Master's in Trilingual Legal Studies (Master Juriste Trilingue). Under the coordination of CCLS Director Dr. Olivier Moréteau, the team is working on the following projects:

- Translation from English into French of the current Louisiana Civil Code;
- Translation from French into English of some civil law terms of the Vocabulaire juridique Cornu, a project sponsored by the Association Henri Capitant des amis de la culture juridique Française, and supervised locally by Prof. Alain A. Levasseur, President of the Louisiana Chapter.

The team meets twice a week, to discuss the translations prepared by Anne and Anne-Sophie, who also do the research work. Prof. Anne Tercinet (EM Lyon, presently visiting at LSU Law) and Daniel On (LL.M. Candidate and Research Assistant for Prof. Moréteau) also attend and contribute at meetings.

Conference on Land Registration in Louisiana and Haiti

On April 26, 2012, the CCLS, in cooperation with Le Centre International de Lafayette, organized and hosted a half-a-day conference on land registration in Louisiana and Haiti, designed for Haitian jurists visiting from the city of Aquin. Papers were delivered by Prof. Winston W. Riddick, Southern University Law Center, Prof. John Randall Trahan, LSU Law Center, Prof. Alain A. Levasseur, LSU Law Center, Me Kennedy Bérandoive, Avocat, Bâtonnier d'Aquin, and Prof. Olivier Moréteau, LSU Law Center.

In his opening remarks, Prof. Moréteau thanked the City of Lafayette, the City of Suresnes (France), the Association Les Anneaux de la Mémoire, Dr. Aldy Castor, Anne Pérocheau, and Anne-Sophie Roinsard, for their contribution to the success of the event.

Distinguished Foreign Visitor

Dr. Anne Tercinet, professor of law at EM Lyon (one of the finest business schools in France and in Europe), visited at LSU Law from June 4 to June 23 to do research in comparative antitrust law and criminal law. She also participated in CCLS Civil Code translation meetings.

Journal of Civil Law Studies: Volume 5 Number 1 “Special Louisiana”

Volume 5 Number 1 of the Journal of Civil Law Studies (JCLS) will commemorate “200 years of statehood, 300 years of civil law: new perspectives on Louisiana’s multilingual legal experience.” It will feature part of the translation work of the Louisiana Civil Code presently conducted at the Centre of Civil Law Studies. The Civil Law in Louisiana section will be inaugurated with a number of case notes on recent decisions of Louisiana courts, written by J.D. students under the supervision of their professors. Volume 5 No. 1 will also feature reviews of publications on the Louisiana civil law and a note reviewing the translation of classics of the civil law, prepared and published over the years under the auspices of the Louisiana State Law Institute and the Center of Civil Law Studies. All volumes of the JCLS are freely accessible online, at www.law.lsu.edu/jcls.

LL.M. & International Students

Congratulations to Ruwani Dantanarayana (Sri Lanka), Veronika Humphries (Slovakia & Louisiana), Flavia Moody (Brazil & Louisiana), Alexandru-Daniel On (Romania), Katarina Simmons (Slovakia & Louisiana), Yovanna Vargas (Peru) who already received or will receive the LL.M. degree in 2012.
