Commencement

CLASS OF 2021 & CLASS OF 2020

PETE MARAVICH ASSEMBLY CENTER • MAY 15, 2021 AT 10:00 A.M.

LSU PAUL M. HEBERT LAW CENTER HISTORY

For more than 115 years, the LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center has been a cornerstone of legal excellence in the state, staying faithful to its core mission and values of teaching, scholarship, public service, and curatorship of the Louisiana Civil Law heritage.

The LSU Law School opened Sept. 24, 1906, with 26 full-time law students and one faculty member, Dr. Joseph Kelly, who also served as dean. Classes were held in Hill Memorial Library on the old downtown campus of LSU, which was at the present site of the State Capitol grounds. In 1925, the law school followed the University to the present campus and was housed in Thomas Boyd Hall before moving to its current site on Highland Road in 1937. Leon Weiss designed the building in the style of the U.S. Supreme Court.

In the 1970s, the school became an autonomous campus within the University system and the position of dean became one of full chancellor. In 1977, the Law Center was officially named after former dean Paul M. Hebert.

October 2003 marked the completion of major renovations to the Law Center campus, which resulted in an expanded, thoroughly modern complex that includes state-of-the-art technology and a Law Library that holds one of the richest comparative law collections in the nation.

The LSU Law Center realigned with the LSU main campus in 2015, and on July 1, 2016, Thomas C. Galligan Jr. became the 11th dean of the Law Center. Interim Dean Lee Ann Wheelis Lockridge assumed the leadership of the Law Center in January 2020 following Dean Galligan's appointment as Interim President of LSU.

Throughout its long history of academic excellence reflecting Louisiana's rich legal heritage, the LSU Law Center has maintained a strong reputation for legal education that is both demanding and rewarding.

CLASS GIFT ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Traditionally, the 3L Class President presents the Ceremonial Mace, donated by the Class of 2014 as their legacy gift to the LSU Law Center. The Class of 2018 donated the mace stand as their legacy gift. Made of sinker cypress, the mace and stand were crafted by a Louisiana craftsman and artist.

The Class of 2021 class gift is a beautiful bronze medallion LSU Law seal for Room 107. The gift commemorates the renovation of Room 107 – the first Classroom to Courtroom renovation at the Law Center.

The Class of 2020 class gift provided funding for the conversion of Room 107 as a multi-functional courtroom and classroom space for future law students.

THE HONORABLE SHELLY D. DICK

CHIEF DISTRICT JUDGE, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

The Honorable Shelly D. Dick was nominated for the federal bench by President Barack Obama on April 26, 2012. Judge Dick was confirmed by the Senate on May 9, 2013, and she received her commission on May 10, 2013. She began serving as Chief Judge on July 18, 2018.

Prior to her confirmation for the federal bench, Dick was in the private practice of law in Baton Rouge from 1988 to 2013, first with Forrester, Dick, and Clark, and later with Gary, Field, Landry, and Dornier. Dick served as an Ad Hoc Hearing Officer with the Louisiana Workforce Commission, Office of Worker's Compensation, from 2008 to 2013. In 2011, she served as an Ad Hoc Hearing Officer with the Randolph Sheppard Program through the Louisiana Workforce Commission.

Dick attended the University of Texas, graduating cum laude with a B.S. in 1981, and later earned her J.D. in 1988 from the LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center. She attended the Center for Labor and Employment Law and the Institute of Judicial Administration at NYU School of Law. She had further training in employment law through the 20th Annual NYU Employment Law Workshop for Federal Judges held in March 2017.

"I am honored to put forward these highly qualified candidates for the federal bench. They will be distinguished public servants and valuable additions to the United States District Court," said President Obama as he moved forward the nomination of Judge Dick and others for federal judgeships.

Dick was a member of the Dean Henry George McMahon American Inns of Court from 1991 to 1993.

ANNIE SCARDULLA, 2020 PROFESSOR OF THE YEAR

As a former Advocacy Teaching Fellow at LSU Law who taught legal writing, Annie Scardulla spent a lot of time with students, working with them on their trial advocacy skills, coaching moot court teams, traveling with them to competitions, and mentoring students through the Fit to Practice Program that she created shortly after joining the faculty in Fall 2017.

Scardulla, a native of Hammond, LA, earned her B.A. in Communication with highest distinction from Saint Louis University. She then graduated magna cum laude and Order of the Coif from the LSU Law Center in 2014, where she was a member of the Louisiana Law Review and president of the Moot Court Board.

Prior to joining the LSU Law faculty, Scardulla practiced law for three years in New Orleans and Covington, primarily in complex torts and product liability cases. Her experiences as a new lawyer inspired her to create the Fit to Practice Program at LSU Law, an annual nine-part workshop series open to all LSU Law and Southern Law students that was focused on the young attorney's role in civil litigation case management and attorney well-being.

The LSU Law Center's Advocacy Teaching Fellow is a transition position by design, typically lasting for two to three years. Scardulla joined the faculty of the University of North Carolina School of Law as a Clinical Assistant Professor of Law in August 2020. She teaches Research, Reasoning, Writing, and Advocacy I and II.

JOHN DEVLIN, 2021 PROFESSOR WILLIAM E. CRAWFORD PROFESSOR OF THE YEAR *

Professor John Devlin is the William Hawk Daniels Professor of Law and Robert & Pamela Martin Professor of Law at the LSU Law Center. Professor Devlin was born and raised in upstate New York. Before law school, he worked as a biomedical laboratory assistant, in summer stock theatre, and in national political campaigns, among other positions. After law school, he clerked for the Hon. Eugene Nickerson (E.D.N.Y) and was an associate with the New York City law firm of Kornstein, Veisz & Wexler, a small firm, specializing in commercial litigation.

Professor Devlin joined the LSU Law faculty in 1986. At the LSU Law Center, he has taught primarily in the fields of constitutional law (federal, state, and comparative), federal civil procedure, administrative law, and employment law. He devotes a significant amount of time working with student organizations including the Public Interest Law Society, the Moot Court and Advocacy program, and Louisiana Law Review. He has served as a coach of the Appellate Advocacy team for many years.

Professor Devlin was named the recipient of the 2016 Susan C. Kalinka Coach of the Year Award for Advocacy Programs. The Kalinka Award recognizes a coach of one of the Law Center's moot court or trial advocacy external competition teams who embodies the inspiration and dedication of the late Professor Kalinka.

Devlin was selected for the award based on his unwavering support of the Law Center's advocacy programs, his relentless dedication to perfection at the podium and in the courtroom, and his readily apparent wish to see the students that he coaches perform to their greatest potential.

*About the 2021 Professor William E. Crawford Professor of the Year Award

By resolution, the LSU Law Student Bar Association requested this year's Professor of the Year award be named in honor of the late Professor William E. Crawford. SBA wished to honor Professor Crawford for his many contributions to the student body. The LSU Law Center Administration is delighted to accept this resolution for the 2021 Professor of the Year award.
