GENERAL INFORMATION

SUBMISSIONS: The editors of the LSU Journal of Energy Law and Resources invite scholars, researchers, practitioners, and professionals to submit completed papers or proposals for publication. To submit a completed paper for publication consideration, please submit the most recent draft of a paper in Microsoft Word format, a CV, and a cover letter describing how the piece will contribute to energy law scholarship by attachment to jelr@lsu.edu. The editors request that each paper be at least 5,000 words. To submit a proposal for a paper for a later Issue, please submit a proposal of no more than 500 words briefly describing the issue by attachment to jelr@lsu.edu. Please include a CV with the proposal. Textual style and usage should conform to Bryan Garner’s The Redbook: A Manual on Legal Style (4th ed. 2018). Footnotes should conform to the The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed. 2020). The Board of Editors reserves the right to make such alterations in style and format as it considers necessary.
