EDITORIAL

THE LAW SCHOOL

The academic session 1946-1947 marks the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the Louisiana State University Law School. The current year will also usher in one of the busiest periods in the Law School's history as the school experiences a part of the unprecedented demand for legal education incident to readjustment from war to peace and evidenced in law schools the nation over.

Two hundred sixty-seven students are in residence at L.S.U.
