The Law School

The 1955-1956 student body is composed of 172 students distributed as follows: first-year, 89; second-year, 51; third-year, 39; graduate students, 3. This compares with last year's total of 178 and indicates that the average total enrollment for the biennium 1954-1956 exceeds that of the preceding two-year period 1952-1954 by approximately 30 percent. For the second year in succession a large first-year class has entered. Thus the sharp increase in the size of this class over the two-year period 1952-1954 amounts to an average of 61 percent in the 1954-1956 biennium. Veteran enrollment continues to be an important factor. Fifty of this year's first-year class of 89 have already had their military service; 53 or 60 percent had earned a college degree prior to entering Law School.

During 1954-1955 the degree of Bachelor of Laws was con-
